

We stand in solidarity with asylum seekers and refugees

- We believe that everyone has the right to a life that is free from persecution and life-threatening situations
- We seek to live in a society that is shaped by compassion and justice for all people including those seeking asylum in Australia
- We affirm the right of asylum seekers to live a dignified, meaningful and safe existence while their claims for protection are being processed
- We believe Australia can and should be more generous and provide resettlement and permanent protection to many more refugees and people seeking asylum.

Organised by the Refugee Advocacy Network, a coalition of community and faith based groups, unions and refugee advocacy organisations.
